Using This Index

Arrangement of entries Entries are arranged in letter-by-letter alphabetical order, i.e. spaces between words are ignored. Thus the entry 'Forgotten Notebook' precedes 'For Love and Money'. Abbreviations are indexed as written (i.e. 'Mr' follows all 'Mo-' entries and precedes all 'Mu-' entries) with two exceptions: 'St' is indexed as if spelt out as 'Saint', and 'Mac' and its variations are all treated as if spelt 'Mac'.

Use of italics Entries in italics are titles — either of articles in The Spectator or of books, magazines and newspaper or of plays, films, operas, ballets, exhibitions etc reviewed or mentioned.

Page references are in the form: (Day) (Month) (Page), i.e. date of issue followed by page number, Thus '17 Oct 39' means '17 October issue, page 39'. Where a subject occurs more than once in an issue, the reference may appear thus: '1 Aug 4(PW), 8(AV)'.

The nature of contributions is indicated by the letter or letters which follow the page reference. Thus '18 Jul 35(R)' refers the reader to a book review appearing in the 18 July issue on page 35. Where successive references in a list are to the same type of contribution the distinguishing letter may be inserted after the last of them only. Thus the entries '11 Jul 23, 24 Jul 27, 8 Aug 22(L)' all refer to letters. A list of the distinguishing letters used is printed at the head of this index.

All leading and 'middle' articles are indexed by title, as are all books (under author and title), plays, films, operas etc which are either specifically reviewed or mentioned at length.

In addition, contributions are indexed under the subjects they deal with, usually with a brief indication of their main contents.

In order to save space and to group together references on similar subjects, a number of general headings such as 'Children', 'Education', 'Economic' and 'Parliament' are used, as well as the names of countries and organisations. References which there is no room to index separately can often be traced from entries under these general headings.
